Job Opening: Delaware County - Conservation Technician
Weekly Hours: 37.0  Shift: 8:00 am to 4:30 pm, extended hours as needed

Summary:
The Conservation Technician performs a variety of duties pertaining to environmental protection and natural resource conservation including participations in the administration and implementation of the Pennsylvania Department of environmental Protection’s delegation of authority agreements.

Essential Duties:
Under the general direction of the director of Soil Conservation, the Conservation Technician will:
• Review erosion and sediment control plans submitted by developers, municipalities, and engineering firms
• Work with developers, municipalities, and engineering firms to advise of appropriate Best Management Practices for the prevention of soil erosion, sediment pollution, and water quality protection
• Conduct field inspections of construction sites and notifies project owners of violations to state regulations
• Work with complainants to resolve issues relating to violations of administered programs
• Administer the National Pollution discharge elimination System (N.P.D.E.S.) Permitting Program for Construction Activities in compliance with the appropriate administrative manual
• Serve as a technical witness in various enforcement actions conducted by the Department of Environmental Protection in cases involving violations
• Prepare correspondence related to department programs, special projects, awards, and contests
• Prepare and present informational and educational programs
• Assist with conducting seminars and workshops
• Attend meetings and training sessions as required, which may involve limited overnight travel
• Performs all other duties, tasks and special projects as assigned

Qualifications:
• Bachelor’s degree in environmental science, biology, agriculture or related field preferred
• Excellent written and verbal communication skills
• Strong presentation skills
• Proficient with Microsoft Office Suite
• Ability to build collaborative relationships inside and outside the organization
• Hands-on commitment to getting the job done

Residence Requirement: The County of Delaware has a residency requirement for employees. Anyone applying for this job must reside in Delaware County or be willing to move to the County within six months of starting employment.

Please Email Application to :
Edward Magargee, District Manager
Rose Tree Park – Hunt Club
1521 North Providence Road
Media, PA 19063

Applications should include a resume, college transcript, and a handwriting sample. Application ill be accepted until the position is filled.